PETITION FOR RULEMAKING

CCR-Brawley IV, LLC ("CCR"), the licensee of broadcast station KSIQ(FM), Brawley, California, pursuant to Sections 1.401 and 1.420(i) of the Commission's rules, hereby requests that the Commission institute a rulemaking proceeding to amend Section 73.202(b) of its rules, the FM Table of Allotments, to specify a new city of license for KSIQ(FM). CCR requests that Channel 241B at Brawley, California be reallocated to Campo, California on Channel 241B1, at allotment point 32E 38' 30" N, 116E 28' 05" W. Attached is an Engineering Statement demonstrating that this Petition is in full accord with Commission minimum distance separation and City Grade coverage requirements. See Exhibit 1.

Grant of the requested channel reallocation would result in a preferential arrangement of allotments as provided in the Commission's change of community procedures. The requested reallocation will provide a first local transmission service to Campo, California and increase the population served by nearly ten times, from 138,901 within KSIQ's current 1mV contour to over 1,423,506, a gain of 1,284,605. See Amendment of the Commission's Rules Regarding

No. of Copies roo'd 074
List ABCDE

MB 05-56

¹ Rule 1.420(i) permits the modification of a station's license to specify a new community of license without allowing competing expressions of interest. Springfield, TN and Oak Grove, Kentucky, DA 03-3871 (Dec. 8, 2003).

Modification of FM and TV Authorizations to Specify a New Community of License, 4 FCC Rcd. 4870 (1989), reconsideration granted in part, denied in part, 5 FCC Rcd. 7094 (1990).

The Commission must determine whether KSIQ's "proposed amendments to the FM Table Allotments is in the public interest and is in accord with [the Commission's] statutory mandate to 'make such distributions of licenses and frequencies . . . among the several States and communities as to provide a fair, efficient, and equitable distribution of radio services to each of the same." Parker & Port St. Joe, FL, 11 FCC Rcd 1095 (1995), quoting 47 USC §307(b). In making this determination, the Commission must "compare the proposed allotment plan to the existing state of the allotments for the communities involved. If the proposed allotment plan would result in a net service benefit for the communities involved (that is, if the plan would result in a preferential arrangement of allotments) [the Commission] will adopt the proposal." Memorandum Opinion & Order on Rules Requiring new Community of License, 4 FCC Rcd at 4873. In assessing the proposed allotment plan, "[t]he Commission seeks to provide in order of priority: (1) first full-time aural reception service; (2) second full-time aural reception service; (3) first local transmission service; and (4) other public interest factors. Co-equal weight is given to priorities (2) and (3)." Id at 4873 & n.8; Faye & Richard Tuck, Inc., 3 FCC Rcd 5374, 5376 (1988).

The present proposal should be adopted because it will provide Campo, California with its first local transmission service. In carrying out its Section 307(b) duties, the Commission should "presume that every separate community needs at least one local transmission service." Parker at 1095.

Campo is a community for allocation purposes. Although it is not a Census Designated Place or an incorporated community, it has sufficient attributes of a community for allocation purposes.² In instances where a community is not a Census Designated Place or incorporated, proponents of an allotment must show the place to be a "geographically identifiable population grouping." Although it is not necessary to show that the borders of the proposed community are precisely ascertainable, it must be shown that the residents of the community are regarded as a distinct group. This can be shown by the statement of local residents or by objective indications of a common perception that the community population is a distinct grouping. Examples of such indications of community status can include the existence of political, commercial, social or religious organizations within the community. See Beacon Broadcasting, 2 FCC Rcd. 3469 (1987), affirmed, 2 FCC Rcd. 7562; Kenansville, Florida, 5 FCC Rcd 2663 (1990), rev. denied, 10, FCC Rcd. 9831 (1995); Semora, North Carolina, 5 FCC Rcd 934 (1990); Pierce, Bloomington, Markham, San Pedro and Bishop, Texas, 8 FCC Rcd. 3528 (1993). See also Benavides, Bruni, and Rio Grande City, Texas, 13 FCC Rcd. 2096 at ¶ 2.

The residents of Campo clearly view themselves as a distinct community. Campo is listed in the 2000 Rand McNally Commercial Atlas and Marketing Guide with a population of 3,122. Campo also has many indicia of social, economic, cultural, and government offices to qualify it as a community for allotment purposes. Campo has six schools, all with Campo, California addresses. Four of the six include Campo in the school name.³ Campo has its own library and the following government offices are all located in Campo: Public Works Road Maintenance Department, Jury Services of the Superior Court, Probation Department, U.S. Border Patrol, Forestry Fire Station, and Sheriff's Office. See attached Exhibit 2, pages 2, 6. There are at least three churches in Campo with Campo addresses: Campo Southern Baptist

² Campo is not included in an urbanized area and the proposed City Grade contour will not cover 50% or more of any urbanized area.

³ Rancho del Campo High School, 957 Forest Gate Road, Campo, CA; Hillside Junior-Senior High, 31360 Highway 94, Campo, CA; Campo Elementary School, 1654 Beckman Springs Road, Campo, CA; University of Healing God, 1101 Far Valley Road, Campo, CA; Campo Continuation School, 31360 Highway 94, Campo, CA; and Campo Band of Mission Indians, 36190 Church Road, Ste. 1, Campo, CA.

Church; Faith Tabernacle Church Retreat, and Lake Morena Community Church. See Exhibit 2, page 4. Campo also has its own volunteer fire department and social organizations, such as Veterans of Foreign Wars, located at 301 Sheridan Road, Campo, California. See, Exhibit 2, page 6. In addition, the U.S. Boarder Patrol has an office in Campo, and Campo is the home of the Campo Tribal Hall. Campo has its own U.S. Post office and numerous businesses, all with Campo, California addresses: East County Lumber & Ranch; Dart, Peter -- Independence Realty; Riverview Communications; Alpine Glass and Screen; Elmore Contractor Consultant; Mr. Handyman Can; Tillman Fence Company; McGuffies Backhoe; Gotesh Multimedia; Mike Thing Pump Service; Mitchel, Jack - Glen D. Mitchell Realtors; Mountain Satellite; Legency Ranch; Read's Country Bumpkins; Campo Materials Company; and Golden Acorn Casino & Travel. See Exhibit 2, pages 8-13.

The indicia for community status for Campo are compelling. In fact, the community indicia are far more extensive than the showing made for Bruni, Texas, which the Commission determined was a community. Bruni is neither a Census Designated Place nor incorporated, and has a significantly smaller population at 375 people. Bruni has one school and three governmental offices and services including a fire department, instead of the six schools and five governmental offices and fire department in Campo. Bruni also had far fewer businesses. See Benavides, Bruni, and Rio Grande City, Texas, supra at ¶2.

The reallocation to Campo will also trigger factor four "other public interest factors," by vastly increasing the number of persons served within the 1m/V contour of the station.

Operation of Channel 241B1 as a Campo, California station will result in a 1.0 mV/m signal coverage of approximately 3,038.4 square kilometers containing 1,423,506persons. This compares to the current coverage of KSIQ of approximately 11,426.9 square kilometers and 138,901 persons, a net gain in service to 1,284,605 people.⁴ See Engineering Statement.

The proposed change for KSIQ(FM) will not cause Brawley, California to lose its only local transmission service. There are currently two commercial FM stations and one full-time AM station licensed to Brawley.⁵ Therefore, even with the KSIQ(FM) move to Campo, there will remain two stations licensed to Brawley, California and the community is served by five or more stations, which is considered well served. See LaGrange and Rollingwood, Texas, 10 FCC rcd 3337 (1995). Accordingly, the community of Brawley will not be deprived of its only local transmission service and will remain well served.

The following is a summary of the proposed changes to the FM table of allotments, Section 73.202(b)(1):

COMMUNITY	PRESENT	PROPOSED
Brawley, CA	233B, 241B	233B
Campo, CA		241B1

⁴ The proposed allocation will result in a loss of service to 11,426.9 sq. km. and 138,901people. The loss areas are well served by five or more stations.

⁵ KROP(AM), KSEH(FM), and KSIQ(FM).

KSIQ certifies that if this Petition for Rulemaking is granted, it will promptly apply to specify a new transmitter site for the modified operation of KSIQ(FM) to serve Campo, California, and will expeditiously construct the facilities.

Respectfully submitted,

ENGINEERING STATEMENT IN SUPPORT OF PETITION FOR RULEMAKING AMENDMENT OF THE FM TABLE OF ALLOTMENTS BRAWLEY, CALIFORNIA AND CAMPO, CALIFORNIA

APRIL 2005

ENGINEERING STATEMENT

IN SUPPORT OF PETITION FOR RULEMAKING

AMENDMENT OF THE FM TABLE OF ALLOTMENTS

BRAWLEY, CALIFORNIA AND CAMPO, CALIFORNIA

APRIL 2005

SUMMARY

The following engineering statement has been prepared on behalf of CCR-Brawley, IV LLC ("CCR"), licensee of Class B FM broadcast station KSIQ, Brawley, California. CCR proposes to amend the Table of Allotments as follows:

	Chan	nel
City	Existing	Proposed
Brawley, California	CH 241B	_
Campo, California	-	CH 241B1

ALLOCATION

This petition is based on the Commission's Rules which allow for the amendment of the Table of Allotments where the amended allotment would occur on a mutually exclusive co or adjacent channel. In this case, the proposed allotment for Channel 241B1 at Campo, California is short spaced to the allotment coordinates for Channel 241B at Brawley, California as shown on Table I, attached.

Table 1 is an allocation study demonstrating that Channel 241B1 can be allocated to Campo, California without any additional changes to the Table of Allotments. The proposed allotment coordinates and city reference coordinates are specified below:

	Coordinates	Distance - kM
CH 241B1 Allotment	N.L. 32° 38' 30" W.L. 116° 31' 37"	0
Campo, California	N.L. 32° 36' 22" W.L. 116° 28' 05"	6.8 kilometers

COMMUNITY DATA

Campo, California is located in San Diego County, California. The 2000 U.S. Census population for San Diego County is 2,813,833 persons, while the 2000 Rand McNally Census for Campo was 3,122 persons.

This compares to Brawley, California which had a 2000 Census population of 22,052 persons and is located in Imperial County with a 2000 Census population of 142,361. Brawley currently has three local aural outlets while Campo has no local service. Facilities licensed to Brawley, California are:

KROP 1300 kHz, 0.5/1kW ND-U

KSEH 94.5 MHz Class B

KSIQ 96.1 MHz Class B

Campo is not a part of any urbanized area. The closest urbanized area is San Diego, California based on facility at the proposed reference coordinates. The proposed reference coordinates are located 6.8

COVERAGE AREA

kilometers from the city reference coordinates which is well within the 23 kilometer nominal reference distance for a 70 dBu contour for 25 kW @ 100 m HAAT. Therefore, the proposed allotment coordinates will provide greater than 70 dBu coverage for all of Campo, California.

GAINS AND LOSSES

The proposed amendment to the Table of Allotments proposes allotment coordinates 102.3 kM from the Channel 241B1 allotment coordinates for Brawley, California. There is no overlap between the 57 dBu

Campo contour for the proposed Channel 241B1 allotment for Campo, California and the present allotment

54 dBu contour for Channel 241B at Brawley, California, based on real world facilities. When evaluated for a constant radii, as appropriate for rulemaking, the allotments do have an area of common or overlap equal to 202.3 square kilometers but with 0 population. The gain area will encompass an area of 3,491 square kilometers and a 2000 Census population of 279,771 persons when compared to the Channel 241B allotment which encompasses an area of 11,277 square kilometers and a 2000 Census population of 138,239 persons. Figure 3 depicts the Campo and Brawley allotment contours.

During daytime hours, the entire area within the KSIQ Brawley allotment 54 dBu receives a minimum of two aural services as depicted on Map Figure 4, attached. Stations considered in this study are listed below:

During nighttime hours, KSIQ provides first and second aural service to unpopulated areas of 220.2 and 595.9 square kilometers, respectively, as depicted on Figure 5. The first service is equal to 1.95% of the total service area while the second service area is equal to 5.28% of the total service area. There is no population in these areas. The first service area is located at the northern edge of the Camp Dunlap Naval Reservation Aerial Gunnery Range. The area outside the Gunnery range is in unpopulated desert and mountain area south of Black Butte. The second service area west of the first service area is located almost entirely in the Naval Gunnery Range, while the second service area to the east is located in totally unpopulated desert and mountain area so rural in nature that there are no identifying designations. The second service area south of Coolidge Springs is located in the Anzar Borvego Desert State Park with a small area outside the park in unpopulated desert area.

CONCLUSION

The proposed deletion of Channel 241B at Brawley, California and the proposed addition of Channel 241B1 at Campo, California is believed to comply with all applicable FCC allocation Rules and Policies and will result in a new first local service to Campo, California while retaining two local services in Brawley, California.
